Keizer Community Library

Patron Code of Conduct Policy

Keizer Community Library's goal is to provide a safe and welcoming learning environment for all users.

While public service is our highest priority, KCL has established the following rules so that all persons may enjoy the benefits of the Library. Library staff are authorized to request patrons to leave if they are violating this Code of Conduct.

To ensure welcoming and sustainable library services and for the safety of all users, the following behaviors are prohibited in the Library.

- Consuming meals or aromatic snacks within the library.
- Using tobacco, tobacco products or vaping devices in any form.
- Blocking Library entrance or exit areas.
- Viewing internet sites that staff determines create a hostile environment for staff or patrons.
- Refusing to comply with staff instructions to stop offensive or unsafe behavior and/or to leave the Library.

The following severe behaviors may result in formal trespassing complaint, forbidding re-entrance to the Library for a specified time period. The misdemeanor trespass complaint will be enforced by Keizer police.

- Threatening or harassing Library users and/or staff by exhibiting abusive or threatening behaviors, including the use of profanity or gestures.
- Engaging in any physical altercation.
- Refusing to leave the library when requested to do so by the staff or volunteers.
- Engaging in any act of sexual conduct.
- Exposing one's genitals.
- Committing theft or vandalism to Library property or personal property of another.
